

Decolonizing Nature: Literary Contexts

Edited by :

Dr. Rajkumar Bera

Dr. Arpita Raj

Mr. Abhishek Chakravorty

MIDNAPORE CITY COLLEGE

Kuturiya, Post Office: Bhadutala, Block: Salboni, District:
Paschim Medinipur, West Bengal, India, Pin code: 721129

Decolonizing Nature: Literary Contexts

Edited by :

Dr. Rajkumar Bera

Dr. Arpita Raj

Mr. Abhishek Chakravorty

ISBN : 978-81-969007-4-8

Copyright : Midnapore City College

Co-Published by: MIDNAPORE CITY COLLEGE

Kuturiya, Post Office: Bhadutala, Block: Salboni,
District: Paschim Medinipur, West Bengal, India,
Pin code: 721129

And

Bangabandhu Publishing House
City Office : A (P) 18 A, College
Street Market, Barnaporichaya
Building, 1st Floor, Kolkata- 700 007

Publish : 28/02/2024

Printed by : Swasti Enterprise
Panskura RS, Purba Medinipur,
W.B. India, Pin-721152

Price : Rs. 1099/-

Content

1.	Ecocriticism & Ecofeminism : The Emergence of Green Studies	Sambit Panigrahi	23
2.	Eco-Consciousness in the Poetry of Select Indian Indigenous Languages: A Study	Indranil Acharya & Aishwarya Banerjee	44
3.	Dialogue on Posthuman Life Death and COVID19	Asijit Datta	59
4.	Gendered Landscapes: Ecofeminism and Environmental Discourse in Gretel Ehrlich's Future of Ice: A Journey into Cold	Anindya Sundar Polley	85
5.	Rooted in Sacredness: Grove Ecology, Cult of the Mother Goddess and Eco-Spirituality	Sakti Sekhar Dash	96
6.	Social Life of Santal Community in Midnapore District during Colonial Period	Biswajit Mallick	120
7.	Role of Indo - Anglian Literature to elevate Eco consciousness	Sharmila Roy	130

- | | | | |
|-----|---|--|-----|
| 8. | Tribal Identity and Womanhood
in Select Writings of
TemsulaAo: A Study | Biswadeb Rajbanshi
&
Arpita Raj | 140 |
| 9. | Decolonizing Nature or
Decolonizing Human Nature?
An Ecocritical Approach to Ngugi Wa Thiongo's A Grain of
Wheat. | Subhadip Das
&
Rajkumar Bera | 146 |
| 10. | Re-reading Of Nadia Hashimi's
"Sparks Like Stars" Through
the Lenses of Ecospirituality:
A Critical Study | Antara Singha Mahapatra
&
Arpita Raj | 159 |
| 11. | Nature and Liberty – A
Literary Study of The Subjugation of Droids and Wookiees, Through the Lens of Posthumanism and Postcolonialism, in "Solo: A
Star Wars Story," "We Don't Serve Their Kind Here" and
"Tribe". | Ayan Dutta
&
Abhishek Chakravorty | 167 |
| 12. | Xenophobia and Co-Existence :
An Ecocritical and Posthumanist Study of the Intricacies of Political and Social Relations Between
Mankind and The Otherised
Species 'Homo Novus' in
Dmitry Glukhovsky's Metro
2033 | Ekta Kar
&
Abhishek Chakravorty | 189 |

- | | | | |
|-----|--|-----------------------|-----|
| 13. | From Margin to Center: An Ecocritical study of Coetzee's Life and Times of Michael K, Disgrace and Lives of Animals | Sovon Dev Chakraborty | 197 |
| 14. | Decoding the nuances Of Anthropocene in Indian English literature | Priyanko Sarkar | 206 |
| 15. | Addressing the Economic Consequence of 'Climate Change': An Ecocritical Study of Nila Madhab Panda's Film KadviHawa (2017) | Akasdip Dey | 214 |
| 16. | Tracing Ecosexuality through the Veins of Literature: From Hardy and Lawrence to Contemporary Voices | Debasis Sau | 226 |
| 17. | Nature's Symphony Unraveled: Ecocritical Perspectives on Human Relationships with Wildlife in Nitin Sekar's What's Left of the Jungle | Indrajeet Ghosh | 239 |
| 18. | Transition of Eco-Spirituality in Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart : Looking through the lens of Postcolonial Ecocriticism | Kalyani Sasmal | 256 |
| 19. | Laughing in the Face of Empire: Socio-Political Commentary and Colonial Critique in Sukumar Roy's AbolTabol | Sriparna Mahapatra | 268 |